Description

Refurbished one-bedroom park home situated in the popular Brookside Park development - close to some excellent major road links, local shops, train stations and a short distance to Frimley Park hospital. Internally, the property offers a double bedroom, a lounge area with access out to the garden, a spacious kitchen and a three-piece bathroom area. The site itself offers ample parking and viewings are highly recommended.

Outside

Externally, the property benefits from a lovely wrap around garden plot that is easily manageable, but offers space to enjoy the sunshine. Brookside Park offers ample parking and there are some excellent connecting road links and local bus stops. The home is also within close proximity to stations and a host of local shops and other amenities.

Floorplan
