Description

A stylish two bedroom first floor apartment situated on the popular Queensgate Development in Farnborough. This accommodation comprises a spacious living/dining area leading through to the fitted kitchen, a good size main bedroom with an en suite, a further double bedroom with a storage cupboard, and a three piece family bathroom with a heated towel rail.

The development offers a range of benefits such as allocated parking, secure access, a well maintained communal garden area, and a bike store.

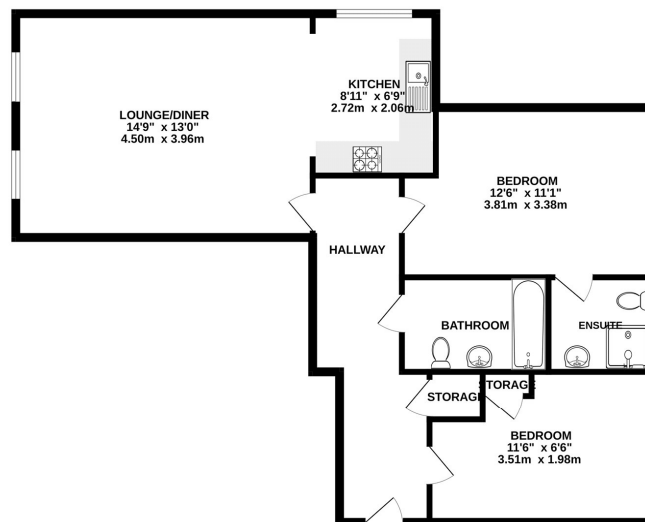

Conveniently located near North Camp village, this property is within close proximity to main train stations, major road links, and amenities, and are all easily accessible. The property makes an ideal first time or investment purchase and viewings are highly recommended to appreciate the property in full.

Outside

Externally the property offers a generous amount of communal gardens that are very well presented, and the development also offers allocated parking, visitor parking, and a secure bike store.
