Description

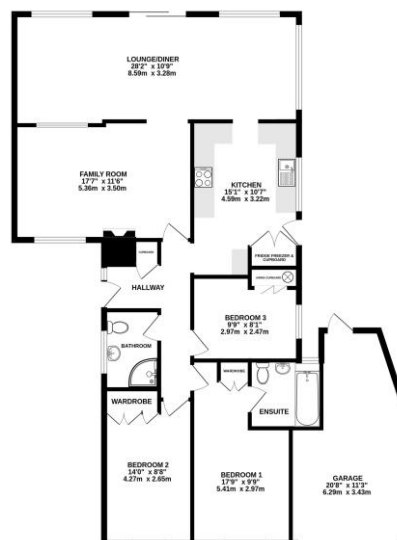

A rare detached bungalow on Dorchester Road, one of Hook's most desirable and tree-lined streets. This property offers close proximity to the village centre with its local shops, doctor's surgery, and mainline railway station. It also boasts three generously sized bedrooms, a modernised shower room, and a modern en-suite bathroom. The kitchen, in excellent condition, features a built-in fridge/freezer, built-in double oven, and gas hob. Additional highlights include an extension that provides a cosy living/dining room, with sliding doors leading out to the garden. The living room is complemented by a gas fireplace, creating a warm and inviting ambiance. The driveway provides off-street parking with potential for additional spaces to be created. NO ONWARD CHAIN.

Outside

The front driveway leads to the garage, which has an up-and-over electric door. Outside, the driveway is block paved and bordered by lush greenery leading to the front door. The south-east facing rear garden, adorned with bushes and foliage, features a private enclosed space with a shed and a pond. Enjoy the inviting patio area with an awning, perfect for relaxation. A path from the patio winds around the garden, connecting back seamlessly to the patio area. A side path leads back from the garden to both the kitchen and garage.
