Description

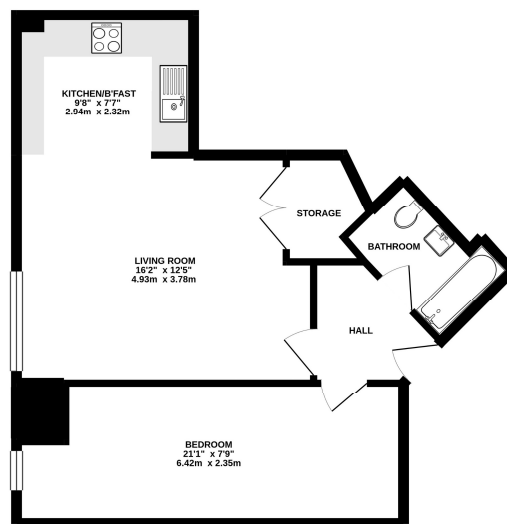

Located close to the centre of Hook village, with the mainline station close by and easy access for Junction 5 of the M3 motorway network, is this super modern and stylish second floor apartment. The property has had several improvements by the current owner. Benefitting from a 21ft by 7ft9 bedroom and fully tiled high end plush hotel quality bathroom, with high end electric shower installed. There is also an open plan modern kitchen with breakfast bar, water softener, integrated appliances, and a living room space with treelined West facing views, perfect for sunsets. The apartment has a light, spacious and airy feel to it with its 9ft high ceilings. Other benefits include fully upgraded radiator style heaters, engineered wooden flooring and video entry phone system. There is an onsite space for a gym, which is a work in progress. The development has ample parking and specifically one allocated space.

Outside

The apartment is West facing and enjoys a treelined view. On the East side of the block is a pretty pond. The development has over 200 parking spaces, far more than the number of apartments, so parking is no issue. One parking space is allocated.
