Description

A particularly light and spacious two double bedroom first floor apartment, situated just outside of Rowhills Nature Reserve. Hillcrest has ample off road parking available for residents and visitors, as well as spacious communal gardens. The property itself is in fantastic order, with the dual aspect living room offering plenty of space for a dining table and giving access to the refitted kitchen. There is a modern bathroom and a generous amount of storage as well as two double bedrooms. In addition to this, the entrance hall is spacious enough for a study space. The property also benefits from gas central heating. The apartment is sure to appeal to both first time buyers and buy to let investors.

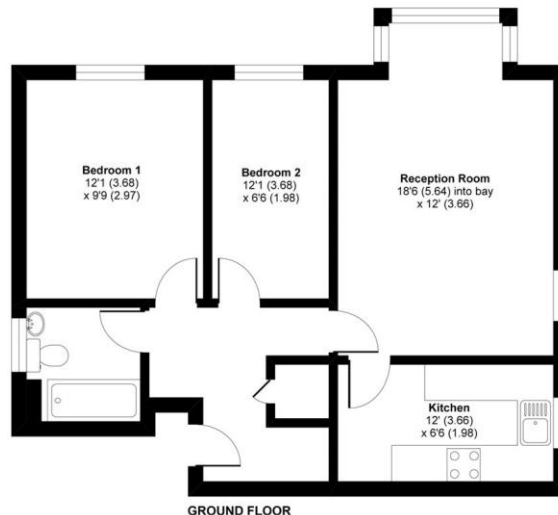

Outside

There is ample parking for the properties within Hillcrest, across a split level parking area to which you have an allocated space. As well as this, there is additional on street parking if required. There are communal gardens available, both at the front and back of the building. These are well maintained and generous enough to be used by all residents.
