Description

Situated within a moments walk of both Farnborough mainline Station and the town centre, is this charming two bedroom character cottage with driveway parking, and a stunning southerly aspect rear garden extending approximately 100 feet. Upon entering the property, you will step into the front lounge. This area of the home has retained its original features and benefits from a charming fireplace, before continuing through to the kitchen/dining room overlooking the garden, the utility room providing access to the garden, and the downstairs bathroom. Under the stairs features a spacious cupboard, currently used as a kitchen pantry used by the current owners.

Upstairs, the property benefits from two generous double bedrooms with the principal room having its own en suite bathroom with an opulent freestanding bath.

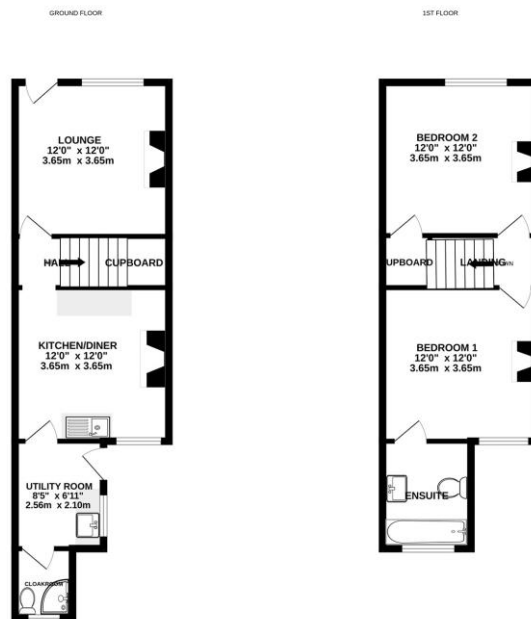

Viewings are highly recommended and can be arrange with a member of the Bridges team.

Outside

Outside the property boasts a gravel driveway offering parking for multiple vehicles, and side access to the private rear garden.

A stunning south facing rear garden that has been tastefully designed to offer a tranquil setting to enjoy the sunshine and entertain friends and family.
