Description

Offered to the market, in good decorative order throughout and located in a quiet cul-de-sac with fantastic school catchments, is this three bedroom semi-detached home. The main living area is double aspect, inviting lots of light and boasting a feature fireplace, making the room feel cosy. The home offers open plan living, with a living area and dining area with sliding doors into the garden, and a modern kitchen. The property also benefits from shutters on the windows in the living room. Upstairs are two double bedrooms, all in superb condition and perfect for a family home, with one of the bedrooms currently being used as a study. The family bathroom has also been recently decorated.

Outside

This home is located at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac with superb schools just around the corner. Driveway parking is offered for multiple vehicles and there is side access to a corner plot rear garden, of which features a seating area perfect for al fresco dining, with most of the rear garden being laid to lawn. There is also access into a garage with power.
