Description

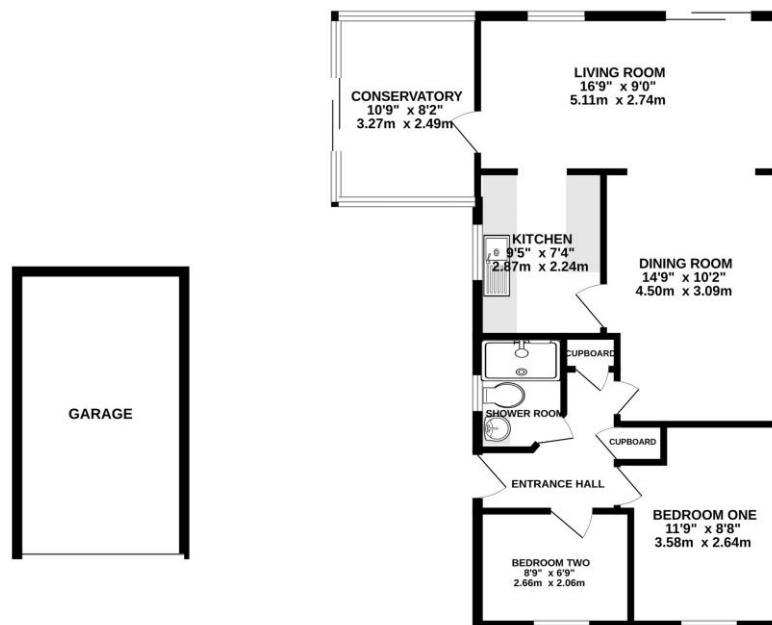

This brilliant semi detached bungalow, on one of the most popular cul-de-sacs in Ash, is offered to the market with no onward chain. This property is beautifully positioned and enjoys plenty of sunshine with a south facing plot. It also has a detached garage, a driveway and has been extended to the rear to create a spacious living/dining room. This property could benefit from some minor improvements throughout and is therefore a prime property to put your own stamp on - to make it a long term home or investment. The property offers two bedrooms, a shower room and a kitchen, living room/diner with sliding doors out to the rear and conservatory to the side. The location is sought after as it's close to a bus stop, village shops and the Basingstoke Canal. We recommend you call us today to book your viewing and avoid missing out.

Outside

Outside benefits from driveway parking for four/five vehicles, a detached garage and a south-facing rear garden. The property is situated on a quiet cul-de-sac.
