Description

Bridges Estate Agents offers to the market this detached three bedroom bungalow which occupies a generous plot approximately a third of an acre, and beyond this at the end of the garden it opens to a further five and a half acres primarily used for equestrian purposes. The living accommodation comprises an entrance hall, a spacious dual aspect living room with a fireplace, a study, three double bedrooms, a spacious kitchen/diner, a conservatory, a bathroom, and a cloakroom.

Outside

The property features a generous gated driveway at the front for multiple vehicles. To the rear is a long garden which has been separated into three different areas, and there are also a few outbuildings and storage sheds as the owners previously kept horses. At the end of the rear garden is approximately five and a half acres of fields/paddocks with an outbuilding previously used as stables. This plot does have a right of way from the neighbouring field.
