Description

Nestled in a no through road in the highly sought after Cufaude Village area of Chineham, this three bedroom detached home is set back from the road in a quiet spot near the park. The property benefits from a practical layout, with the open plan kitchen/diner spanning the entire width of the property at the rear, and a cosy living room at the front of the home, which centres around a warming fireplace. On the first floor there are three well proportioned bedrooms, with the main bedroom benefitting from built in wardrobes and an en suite shower room. The rear garden is very private and with a westerly aspect, it gets the afternoon and evening sun - making it a great space for entertaining and relaxing after work.

Outside

Due to the unique position of this home you can access a children's recreation area within a spacious green space and a park popular with dog walkers just a short walk from your front door. There is excellent local amenities with Chineham Shopping Centre conveniently nearby and great transport links easily accessible too.
