Description

Offered to the market is this well presented detached five bedroom house in South Farnborough. Set within walking distance to King George V playing fields and local well regarded schools, this would make the ideal spacious family home. The house provides versatile accommodation over three floors and unlike most town houses, this house has all the living accommodation on the ground floor.

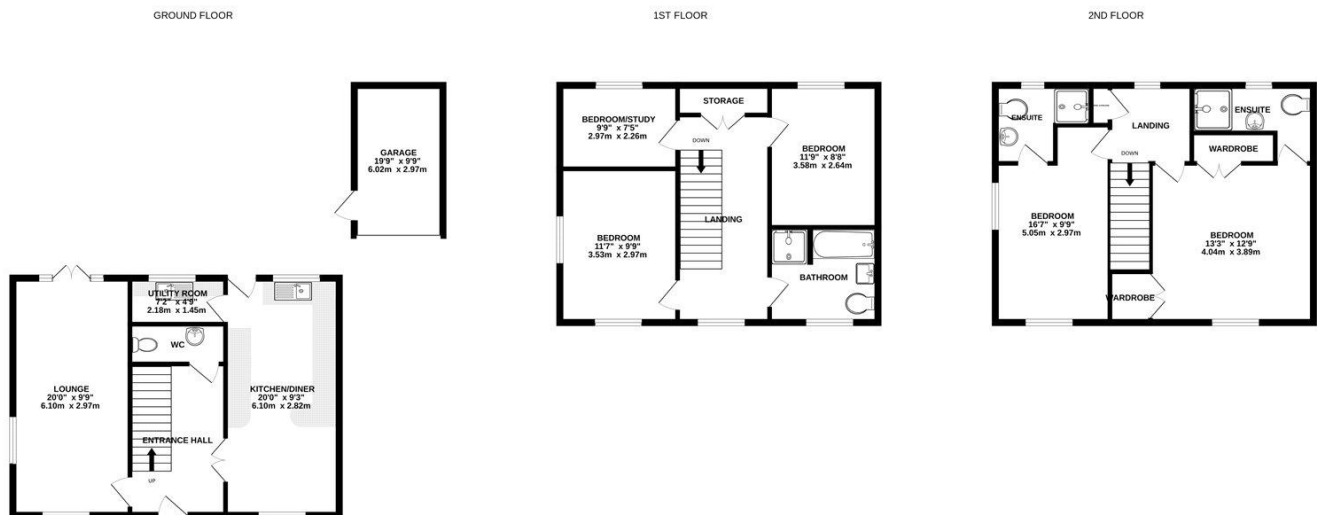

The current owners have updated the property, this includes a new open plan kitchen/dining room with under floor heating and door leading to the low maintenance private garden. Having changed the layout in their time at the property, the house now has a great flow and is ready for someone to move straight in.

Positioned in a short drive to the A331 providing access to major road links yet being tucked away in a residential road and under two miles from Farnborough main line station, this really is a great location to move to.

Outside

To the side of the property is parking for multiple vehicles and a side access gate to the rear garden.
