Description

Offered for sale to the over 60s, with no onward chain complications and situated in a peaceful location yet within the heart of the town centre, is this outstanding one double bedroom ground floor apartment with the added benefit of storage space, fitted wardrobes and access from the living room to the outside gardens. Internally, there is a living room, separate kitchen, bedroom, bathroom, and a storage cupboard. The property also offers stunning communal gardens, in addition to the communal living areas and kitchen. There is parking for residents and an internal refuse room. Internal viewings are highly recommended.

Outside

Externally the property offers well-maintained communal grounds providing various seating areas to enjoy the sun and socialise with other residents. There are ample parking spaces, and the property is a short walk away from Camberley town centre and some excellent green spaces.
