Description

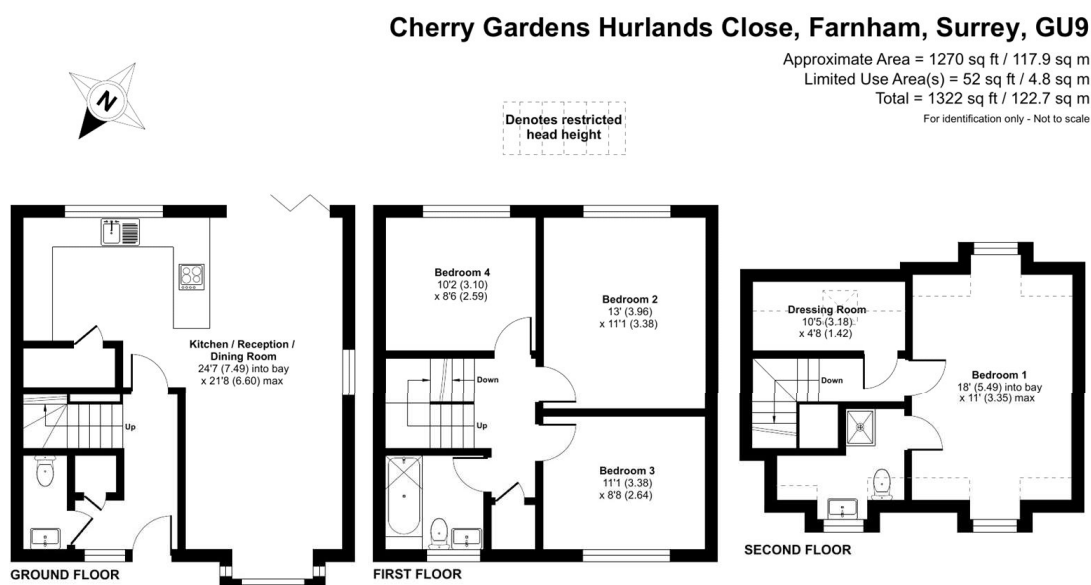

A unique development of four elegantly appointed detached townhouses.

Cherry Gardens is a niche development of just four beautifully appointed townhouses carefully crafted with a meticulous eye for detail and a host of premium finishes. Situated just to the East of Farnham.

Each house has been carefully considered and offers a range of premium finishes to include a full suite of Bosch appliances and a Belfast sink to the kitchen, solid timber front and bi fold doors, oak internal doors and underfloor heating to the ground floor.

Badshot Lea is a quiet little Hamlet located just to the East of the picturesque Georgian town of Farnham which offers a selection of retail and amenities. Badshot Lea benefits from many facilities including an excellent infant school and village hall, two public houses and a green at the centre of the village which is home to both a Cricket Club and Tennis Club.
