Description

A stunning apartment situated in the gated development "Union Buildings" in a converted grade II listed building. Over one level, a shining apartment with vaulted ceilings, which just simply has the wow factor. On entering the gated development, the building most certainly takes your breath away with its grandeur. The property further offers two double bedrooms, one of which boasts a stylish en suite - alongside a further bathroom. This property is located close to Aldershot town centre and the mainline train station - as well as other essential amenities. Bridges Estate Agents are delighted to offer this property to the market and highly recommend viewing.

Outside

The views from the property are picturesque, overlooking landscaped gardens and parking is allocated.
