Description

A beautifully presented four bedroom family home, built to a high specification throughout, situated in a peaceful cul-de-sac close to highly regarded schools and Farnham Park. The ground floor comprises a welcoming hallway providing access to a fully integrated modern kitchen/breakfast room, with an induction hob and a bay front window allowing for plenty of natural light. The captivating 25'5 lounge/dining room is the hub of the home, featuring a dual aspect and French doors to the rear making this an ideal place to entertain guests. Additionally, there is a downstairs cloakroom, understairs storage, and boot cupboard. The first floor boasts three bedrooms, two of which are generously sized doubles, the principal bedroom benefiting from built-in wardrobes and a luxurious en suite bathroom, along with a family bathroom. There is also the added benefit of a generously sized guest suite on the second floor comprising a dressing area, built-in wardrobes, an en suite bathroom, and a spacious storage cupboard.

Outside

Externally is just as impressive with a driveway and garage to the front. The southeasterly facing rear garden is of good size, fully landscaped by the current owners and is well stocked with perennial flowers, shrubs, specimen trees, spring bulbs, blossom trees and an array of colour through all seasons.
