Description

Ideal for a first time buyer, we offer this charming freehold two bedroom back to back home, conveniently situated near the village centre with easy access to amenities and the mainline railway station. The property features a front garden that can be fully enclosed, creating a private outdoor space. Inside, you'll find a well appointed kitchen with a four burner gas hob, a separate lounge/diner with an open slatted staircase maximising floor space, a ground floor cloakroom, and a refitted first floor bathroom. Both bedrooms include built in wardrobes, with the principal bedroom featuring a spacious double wardrobe, plus additional loft space. The home also boasts two allocated parking spaces.

Outside

The front of the property could be closed off to create a private garden area, being on the corner of cluster it's a good size, its laid to lawn with pathway leading to the front door, there is space for a shed and access to an extra storage cupboard. Parking is allocated in the two bays next to the pathway.
