Description

Offered to the market, with no onward chain and in an ideal town centre location, is this well-presented penthouse apartment. The property is spacious and in superb condition, with a hallway that doubles up as a study due to the size, and Velux windows throughout which make the apartment feel light and airy. The kitchen is modern and refurbished, while the living/dining area is huge in size, a great space for entertaining, with Velux windows running down both sides. The principal bedroom is at the end of the hallway and boasts built in storage, lots of space, and a modern bathroom. The family bathroom follows the same trend and is immaculately presented, and a further double bedroom is also offered. The property is ideally located and has tonnes of space and storage.

Outside

The property is in a superb town centre location, with both shops, local amenities and the train station all in walking distance. The property has one allocated parking space.
