Description

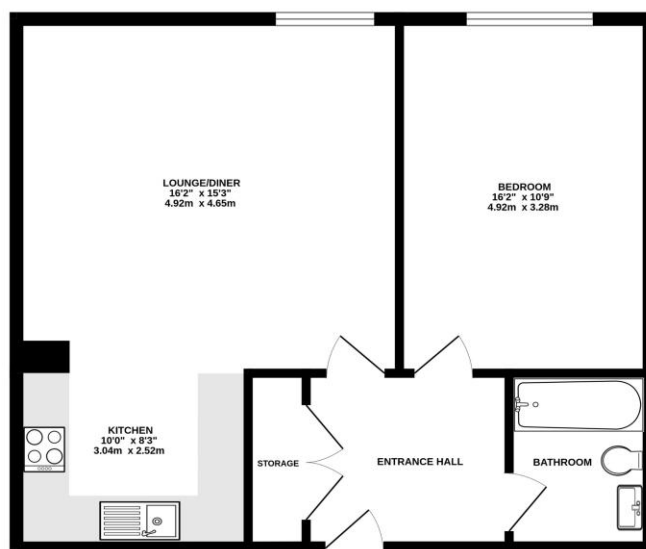

This stylish first floor apartment, located just a short walk from Hook's village centre, offers a spacious and light filled living space with high ceilings and good sized windows. The well designed layout includes a welcoming entrance hall with a generous storage cupboard, a bright open plan kitchen and living area with integrated appliances, and a good sized double bedroom. The modern bathroom completes the apartment, which features engineered wood flooring throughout. With secure entry, lift access, and plenty of resident's parking, the property provides a convenient and low maintenance lifestyle. It also presents a strong investment opportunity, offering rental yields above the local average.

Outside

The exterior of Providence House offers ample parking for residents and visitors, with the added benefit of a peaceful pond at the rear, creating a tranquil setting. Located just a short walk from Hook's vibrant village centre, the property is ideally placed near two superstores, local pubs, restaurants, and other essential amenities. For commuters, Hook Train Station is just a mile away, providing direct services to London Waterloo. The M3 motorway is also easily accessible, with Junction 5 just up the road. Families will appreciate the proximity to local schools, including Hook Infants and Juniors, as well as the well regarded Robert Mays Secondary School in neighbouring Odiham.
