Description

The Officers' Park Collection – Historic Elegance Meets Modern Living.

Nestled in the heart of Deepcut, The Officers' Park is a truly distinctive residential development, offering 33 beautifully appointed one and two bedroom apartments within the magnificent former headquarters of the Princess Royal Barracks – all set within over three acres of private, landscaped grounds.

Originally constructed in 1937, the Officers' Mess was once the historic heart of military training and the Royal Logistic Corps. Now thoughtfully restored by Bourne Homes Ltd, the building retains its striking revivalist architecture - featuring grand proportions and finely detailed facades - while being reimagined for modern living.

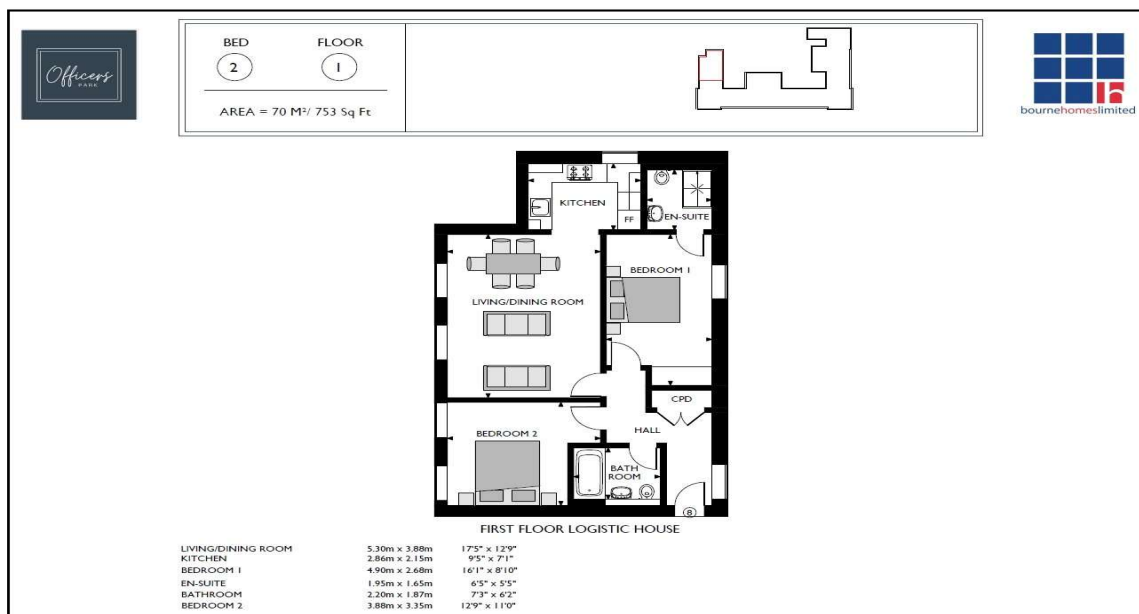

Thoughtfully restored to honour its storied past, this exceptional development preserves many original features -maintaining its historic charm and architectural significance. At the same time, each apartment has been carefully reimagined for contemporary living, with open-plan layouts and bright, airy interiors designed to maximise the stunning views across landscaped grounds.

Many homes feature private outdoor spaces such as gardens or terraces, with one plot offering a private balcony. Selected properties also include a garage, while every apartment is equipped with an EV charging point - reflecting Bourne Homes' commitment to sustainability and future-ready living.
