Description

Having undergone a number of improvements since being purchased from new, this exceptional four double bedroom home, in the popular Wellesley development, is available for resale for the first time since its construction in 2022. Upon entering the property through a welcoming entrance hall, there is access to a front living room. To the rear of the ground floor is the main kitchen/dining room, with newly integrated appliances - which also has patio doors leading to the south west facing garden. There is also a downstairs cloakroom. To the first floor are four double bedrooms and one family bathroom, with the main bedroom benefitted from an en suite. Aldershot train station, which offers direct links to London Waterloo, is just over half a mile from the property. With popular schools within walking distance in addition to a number of green spaces for walking. Give us a call today to book your viewing!

Outside

The property offers a south west facing garden, which is laid to lawn. To the side of the property is driveway parking as well as a garage.
