Description

Beautifully decorated throughout, spacious, and found in one of the most popular roads in Farnborough in the heart of the Empress Park development, this three bedroom semi-detached house is a fantastic buy for a family. The property benefits from driveway parking for at multiple vehicles and a beautifully laid to lawn front garden. On entry to the home, you will find an extended and very open entrance hall - the previous owners actually used this as a work from home study area but is multipurpose and suites those with children and pets - you can never have enough space with a family! You have the added benefit of a downstairs cloakroom too.

Outside

The dining area has bi-folding doors opening up to the gorgeous mature garden that backs onto the ever popular Queen Elizabeth Park, a really beautiful and picturesque location.
