Description

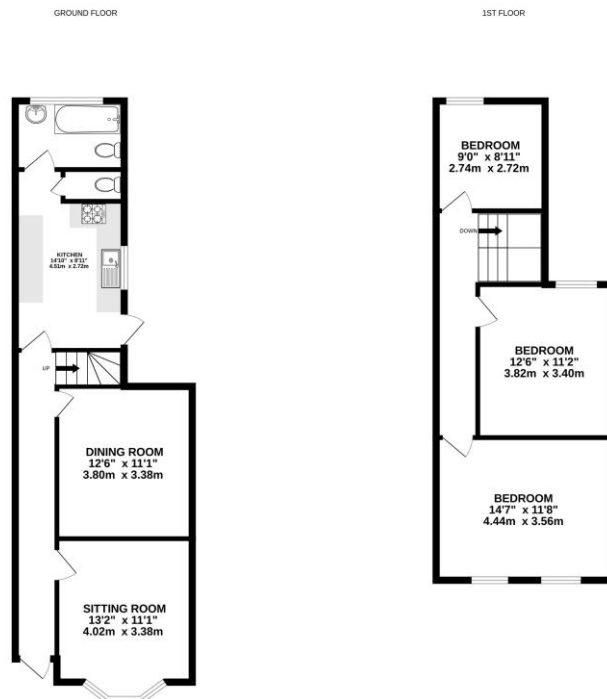

Positioned in a well regarded residential road in Aldershot, set over two floors and with many improvements being made by the current owners, Bridges are delighted to offer this property to the market. The journey of this fabulous family home begins on the ground floor, boasting a welcoming entrance hall - leading to both of the reception rooms. The first floor offers a principal bedroom with a further two double bedrooms. The property also benefits from period features throughout. Bridges Estate Agents are delighted to offer this fabulous Victorian home to the market and highly recommend viewing as being sold with no onward chain complications.

Outside

Rear garden mainly laid to lawn and enclosed by wooden panel fencing.
