A wide central hallway gives a welcoming first impression, with two spacious double bedrooms at the front, each with characterful bay windows. Further into the home, an L-shaped lounge and music room provides a generous and versatile area for both entertaining and quiet evenings, complete with a feature fireplace. This connects through to a separate kitchen and dining room with garden views, while a utility area and cloakroom are tucked conveniently to one side. The principal bedroom is positioned to the rear for added privacy and stretches the full width of the home. It also offers scope to create an en suite, with plumbing already in place. A stylish four piece family bathroom completes the layout, while a fourth bedroom provides the ideal spot for a study, guest room or snug.
