Description

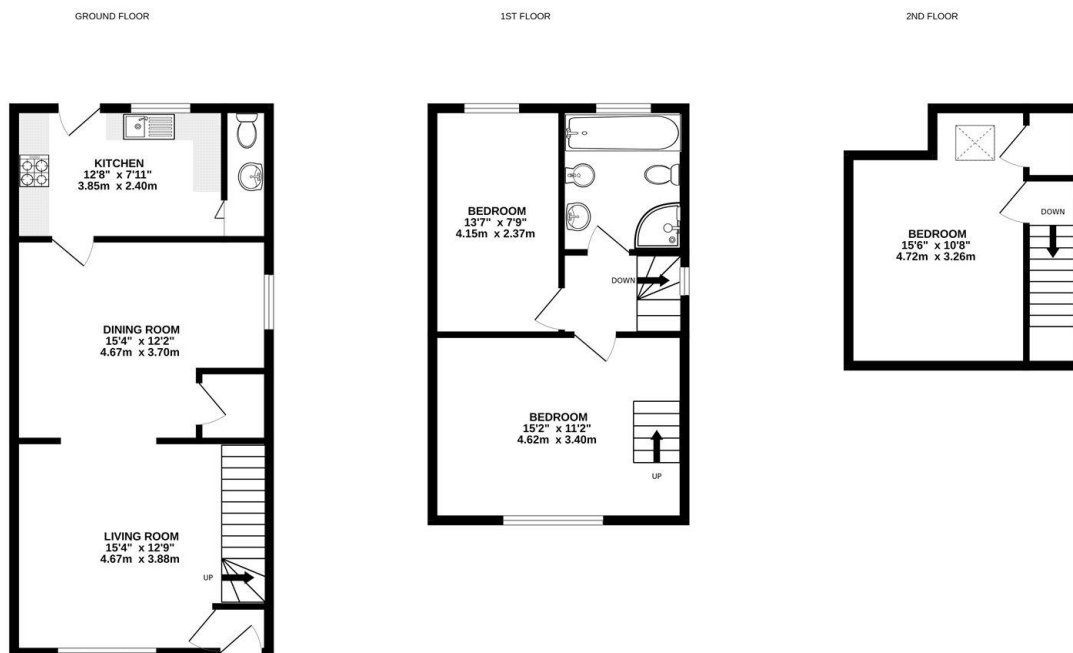

A charming Victorian home, which benefits from off road parking and three bedrooms across three floors. The entrance to the property leads through to the living accommodation, which is open plan between the living room and the dining room. There is then a door which opens on to the kitchen, with access to a downstairs cloakroom. To the first floor is the bathroom and two bedrooms - with the primary bedroom a particularly good size and boasting plenty of built in storage. There is then stairs which take you in to the converted loft, currently used as an extra bedroom. The garden has patio area positioned to the front and side of the garden, with then a step up onto the bark area. A spacious garden shed can be found at the rear of the garden, as well as direct access out onto the park. Situated less than a mile from Aldershot train station with direct links to London Waterloo, the property is also within walking distance of popular schools for all ages.
