Description

Situated in the popular Busk Crescent sits this well presented three bedroom family home, within walking distance to local schools, shops and other amenities - as well as offering driveway parking to the front. Upon entering the property, the ground floor consists of an entrance hallway and a spacious front lounge with understairs storage - alongside a modern and sleek kitchen leading to the ground floor bathroom and garden room/conservatory. Upstairs the property offers three good sized bedrooms, with the main room now benefiting from a smartly designed en suite and built in wardrobe space. Viewings are highly recommended and can be arranged with a member of the Bridges Team.

Outside

To the front of the property is a good sized driveway, bordered by some established hedges and a low brick wall. The generous south facing rear garden boasts some well designed flower beds, trees, bushes and shrubs - as well as a lawn leading down to a patioed seating area. There is also a storage shed at the end. The garden is a perfect space for any family, whether you are entertaining friends or relaxing in the sunshine - this is a must see property.
