Description

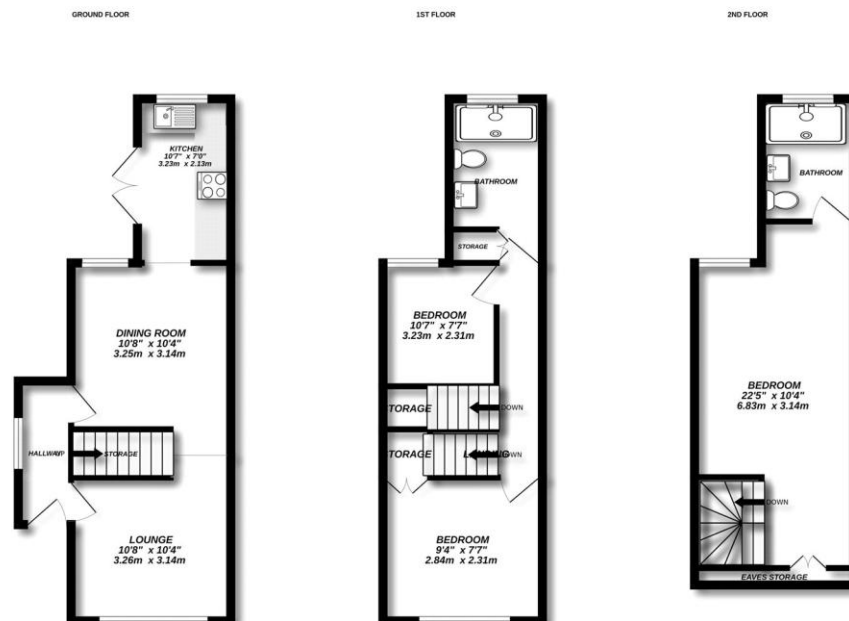

A tastefully designed three bedroom, Victorian home set within walking distance to a host of local schools, amenities and green spaces ensuring this family home really is in the perfect location. Upon entering the property via the entrance hallway, you have the option of walking into the cozy and characterful lounge or continuing on to a stylish dining area that follows round to a sleek and modern kitchen with a host of fitted appliances overlooking the rear garden. Continue upstairs to the first floor landing, providing access to two double bedrooms and a pristine modern bathroom suite and leading up to the second floor you will find a main bedroom offering stunning views with a stylish en suite bathroom creating a top floor space that really must be seen. Viewings are highly recommended and can be arranged with the Bridges Team.

Outside

The property benefits from driveway parking to the front with additional on road parking available and gated access to the sunny aspect rear garden. The rear garden is very well designed and boasts a good sized patio area perfect for entertaining friends and family with a manicured lawn that is bordered by raised flower beds, potted plants and bushes creating a sense of calm and tranquillity.
