Description

Rarely available, this beautifully presented top floor apartment is perfect for someone who will appreciate skyline views! You can see for miles over Farnborough and beyond from the private balcony, overlooking treetops and buildings you really feel completely secluded.

This property has an open and spacious entrance hall, that leads through to the bigger than average double bedroom, complete with built-in storage space, good sized windows bringing in plenty of natural light. You also have a separate family bathroom.

The main living space is vast, with floor to ceiling doors opening out to the private balcony. The space is open plan, with built-in appliances in the kitchen, plenty of worktop space making it an enjoyable area for those who enjoy socializing.

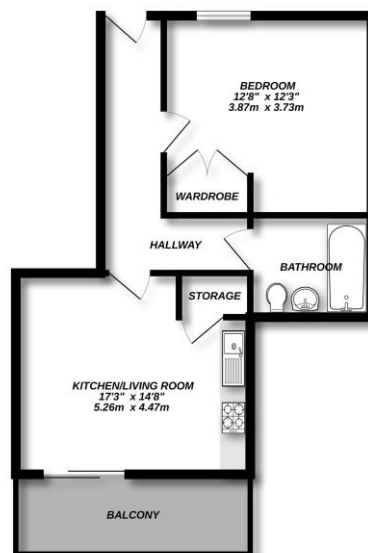

The property also has the benefit of two allocated parking spaces and is within walking distance of Farnborough Main station. Viewings are highly recommended.
