Description

A unique opportunity to purchase an immaculate four bedroom semi-detached family home plus two bedroom annexe which sits on a generously sized south facing plot with the benefit of no onward chain. The house is presented in exceptional condition throughout and boasts a generously sized high specification kitchen/diner and luxury family bathroom. With a brilliant two double bedroom detached annexe in the garden, this property offers plenty of flexible living options. This home is located in a handy spot with it being short walk from all the excellent local schools including Shawfield and Ash Manor, with Ash train station very close by as well as the A331 & M3. Call us today to come and take a look!

Outside

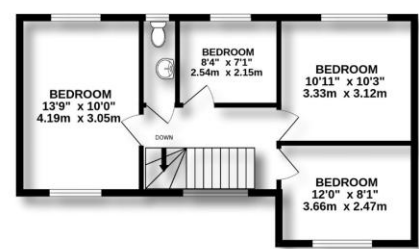

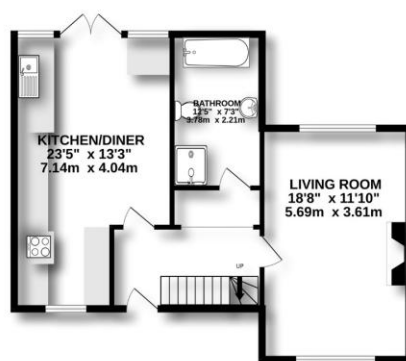

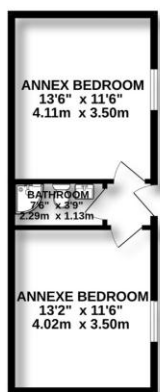

To the front is a smart block paved driveway with parking for several vehicles. There is then access down the side of the property which leads to the generously sized south facing garden which is home to the detached annexe and patio area.
