Description

This beautifully presented three-bedroom end-of-terrace home has been fully refurbished and is ready to move straight into. Situated in the sought-after residential area of South Ham, the property boasts a sleek modern kitchen, stylish décor throughout, and generous living space—perfect for families, first-time buyers, or investors alike. The ground floor begins with an entrance porch leading into a contemporary kitchen, fitted with attractive units and integrated appliances. A bright and spacious living room follows, offering the ideal space for relaxing or entertaining. Upstairs, there are three well-proportioned bedrooms, including two generous doubles filled with natural light and offering ample space for wardrobes or storage. The third bedroom is a versatile single, ideal as a child's room, nursery, home office, or guest room. A modern family bathroom completes the first floor, designed with a clean and stylish finish for everyday use.

Outside

The property benefits from a generous, private garden, featuring a well-kept lawn and a patio area directly accessible from the lounge—ideal for outdoor dining or relaxing. Further advantages include a garage, which can be used for secure storage or off-road parking, with additional driveway parking available to the front of the property. Situated within easy reach of local schools and amenities, the location is perfectly suited for families, offering convenience alongside a peaceful residential setting.

Floorplan
