Description

This beautifully presented three-bedroom, two-bathroom end-of-terrace townhouse offers stylish and versatile living across three floors, perfectly positioned within walking distance of Farnborough Main train station and the town centre. Built just 13 years ago, the property has been thoughtfully extended with a stunning orangery, complete with vaulted ceilings and skylights that flood the space with natural light. The ground floor features a bright and adaptable living room that flows into the orangery, a modern kitchen/breakfast room, and a convenient cloakroom. Upstairs, the first floor offers two well-proportioned double bedrooms, including one with en suite, while the spacious top-floor bedroom is complemented by the family bathroom. Externally, the home impresses with a generous rear garden, complete with a versatile summer house—ideal as a home office or studio—and the rare benefit of four private parking spaces. This is an outstanding opportunity for families, professionals, or anyone seeking flexible modern living in a highly convenient location.

Outside

The property benefits from driveway parking for two vehicles, in addition to two allocated spaces. To the rear, the mature garden provides an excellent outdoor retreat, complete with a versatile summerhouse—perfect for use as a home office, studio, or entertaining space.
