Description

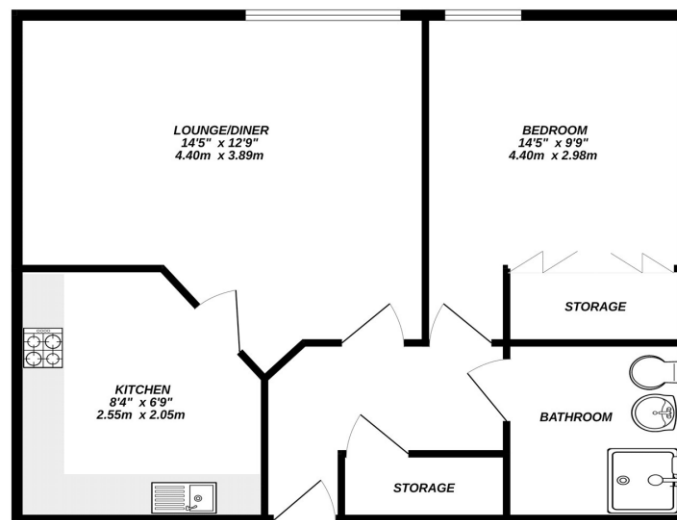

This top floor one bedroom retirement apartment offers both comfort and practicality in a well-maintained development. The property includes allocated parking for one vehicle and has been thoughtfully updated to suit modern living. Inside, a spacious entrance hall with built-in storage cupboards leads to a bright lounge and a dedicated dining area, creating a welcoming space to relax and entertain. The separate kitchen, refitted within the last six months, features a contemporary finish and ample storage. The bedroom benefits from additional built-in storage, while the modern shower room completes the accommodation. With its fresh updates and convenient layout, this property is ideal for those seeking a comfortable and low-maintenance home within a friendly retirement community.

Outside

Externally, the property enjoys beautifully maintained communal gardens, featuring inviting seating areas ideal for al fresco dining, socialising, and outdoor relaxation.
