Description

Situated in a quiet cul-de-sac, on an established and popular development, is this three-bedroom terraced family home. The property offers a well-proportioned living/dining room with patio doors leading to the rear garden and a feature fireplace, a modern fitted kitchen, modern shower room, and three spacious bedrooms, all well-presented throughout. This property is near to local shops, amenities, and great A331 links, whilst also being within catchment of popular schools.

Outside

Outside, the property benefits from ample on-street parking and a generous front lawn. A side gate leads to the private rear garden that includes an outbuilding for storage, offering both convenience and seclusion.
