Description

A rare opportunity to acquire this delightful two-bedroom bungalow, available to the over 50s, situated in a sought-after location just a short distance to Farnham town centre and mainline station. Upon entry you are greeted by a welcoming hallway leading through to the front aspect lounge/dining room with wooden flooring and offering pleasant views of the communal grounds. The well-presented kitchen overlooks the rear garden and has space for freestanding/built-in appliances. There are two well-proportioned bedrooms both featuring built-in storage and wardrobes. The principal bedroom enjoys access directly onto the communal gardens. There is a three-piece shower suite that completes the living accommodation.

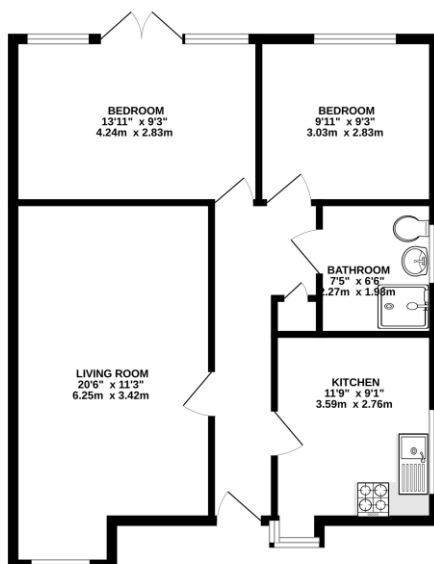

Outside

There are communal landscaped gardens from the heart of the development, complemented by a personal garden shed as well as resident and visitor parking.
