Description

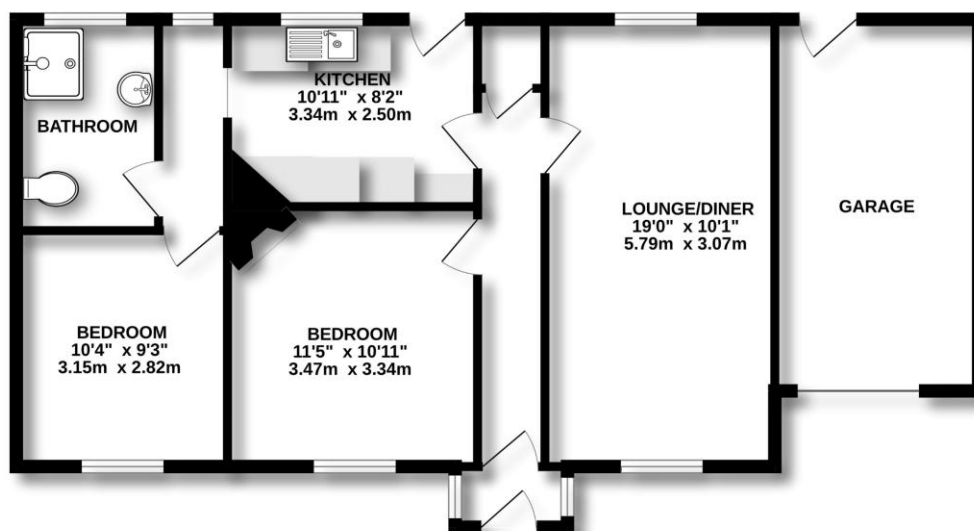

This beautiful, detached bungalow - located in a prestigious unadopted road on the borders of Ash and Normandy - offers an opportunity to live in a peaceful rural location, yet within easy reach of local amenities, bus routes and Ash Train Station. There is also close access to the popular Ash Ranges, perfect for hiking and dog walks. The accommodation comprises an entrance hall, two double bedrooms, a kitchen, bathroom and a living/dining room. A recently resurfaced driveway, alongside a garage, means there is plenty of parking and storage. The garden has been fantastically maintained and is the perfect size to enjoy the sun and entertain family and friends. This sort of property doesn't come up often, so please call us as soon as possible to book your viewing!

Outside

Externally there is a newly resurfaced driveway, a garage and a private enclosed garden. There is easy access to the Ash Ranges and the local bus stop.
