Description

Situated in the heart of Aldershot town centre, and being sold with an extended lease, is this well presented apartment.

The property is in good order throughout and benefits from a private balcony. Located just a three minute walk from the train station, which offers direct links to London Waterloo, the apartment is also within walking distance of popular schools and the Basingstoke Canal.

Bridges are delighted to offer this property to the market and highly recommend viewing, as it is being sold with no onward chain complications.

Outside

The property is accompanied by a communal rooftop terrace a brilliant space for all to enjoy dining, socialising, and creating lasting memories. In addition, you benefit from a private balcony that allows natural light to flood the property, while in the summer it can be opened to cool off and relax.
