Description

Spacious, light and ready to move straight into, this home is perfect for first time buyers seeking a property with instant appeal, as well as investors looking for a space that will attract tenants easily. The private ground floor entrance creates a welcoming start before you head upstairs to the main accommodation, where the owners have transformed the layout into a bright open plan space. The replaced kitchen flows seamlessly into a generous dining and living area, creating a modern, social environment that is both comfortable and practical. Two well proportioned bedrooms, with the principal featuring built-in wardrobes and a contemporary bathroom complete the home, offering a stylish and versatile living space.

Outside

Outside, the rear garden is impressively spacious, providing a wonderful space to relax, entertain or simply enjoy the outdoors, while the allocated parking adds everyday convenience. Old Basing continues to charm with its friendly atmosphere, local pubs, shops and leafy walks, all within easy reach of Basingstoke for wider amenities and transport links. This is a home that combines style, space and a sought after location, appealing to both those looking to live in it and those seeking a strong investment.
