Description

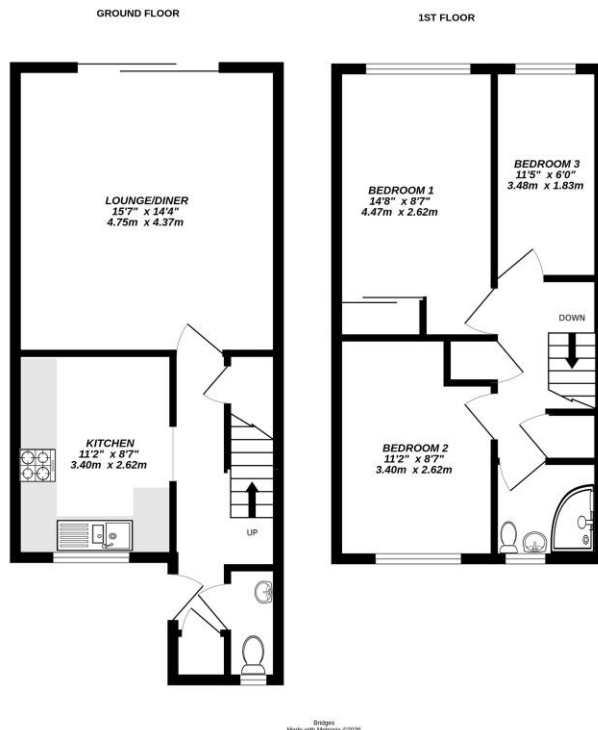

Situated in a quiet, traffic free area of Holland Pines, this three bedroom terraced home offers a refitted kitchen and an upgraded boiler. Gas central heating is complemented by solar panels, creating a more energy efficient home. The property also features a refitted cloakroom and a refitted shower room and there is a good sized lounge/diner facing the garden. For buyers requiring additional storage, a garage is available in a nearby block. Those seeking a home with a south facing garden will find this property particularly appealing.

Outside

The rear garden is enclosed with wooden fencing, the current owner has made it low maintenance with a hardstanding patio area and the remainder being laid to shingle, there are raised planters and gate to the rear. The front provides a pathway to the front door with lawn either side.
