Description

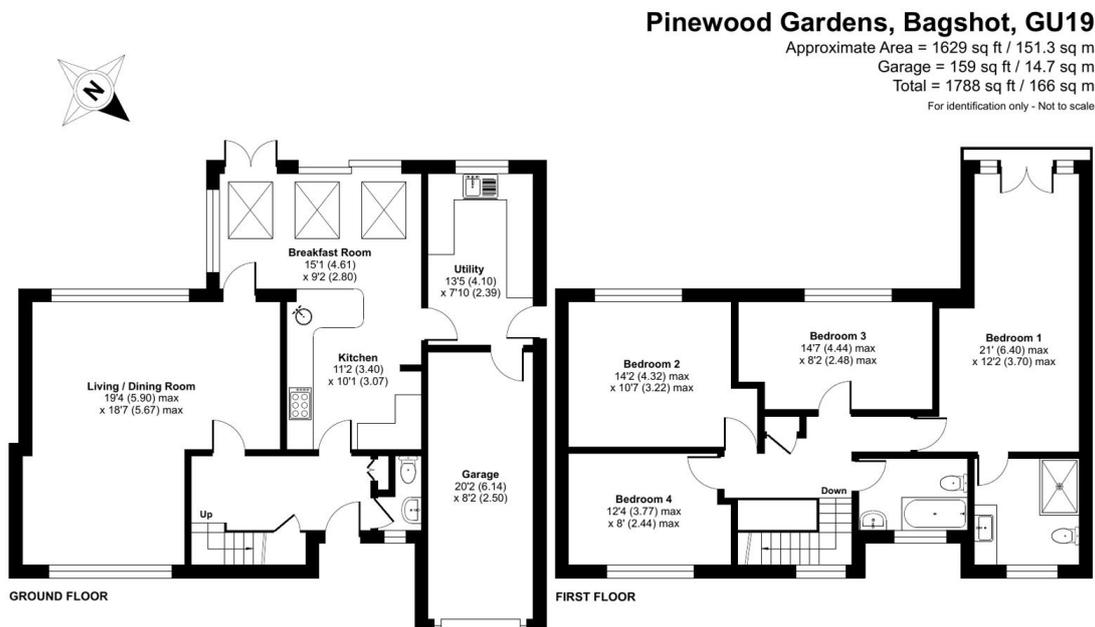

Tucked away in the desirable, peaceful and private cul de sac of Pinewood Garden, this smart, move in ready four bedroom detached home pairs modern styling with family friendly flexibility. A refitted kitchen, with both convection and steam ovens, flows into a bright dining/family area, creating a natural hub where cooking, homework, and play/entertainment can all happen together. Everyday life runs beautifully smoothly here. A notably spacious utility room/mudroom with generous worktops, a sink, and direct garden access is perfect for laundry, crafts and all the “muddy boots and kits” moments that come with children, pets, and outdoor hobbies. The main living room is equally spacious and can easily incorporate a dining table if you prefer to dedicate the kitchen side to a play zone or homework space—giving you genuine “grow with you” flexibility. Upstairs, four double bedrooms include a light, generously sized principal suite with a contemporary en suite shower room and a Juliet balcony—your calm retreat once the day is done.

Outside

Outside, the south easterly garden catches the morning sun for relaxed breakfasts and child-safe play, while the wrap around side plot offers scope to extend in future (STPP). With driveway parking for multiple vehicles plus garage access, the home is set up for busy family life. Moments away from woodland walks, Bagshot Park and local amenities, and set within an idyllic, peaceful cul de sac, this is an easy home to live in—and an easy one to love.
