Description

Offered to the rental market and available immediately, Regent House has undergone full refurbishment and retains numerous character features that show off this beautiful period home superbly.

Situated in the heart of historic Odiham Village and therefore on the doorstep of several local amenities, the lifestyle of this home suits those who enjoy country life but still require access to the south coast/London, with junction five of the M3 motorway less than two miles away.

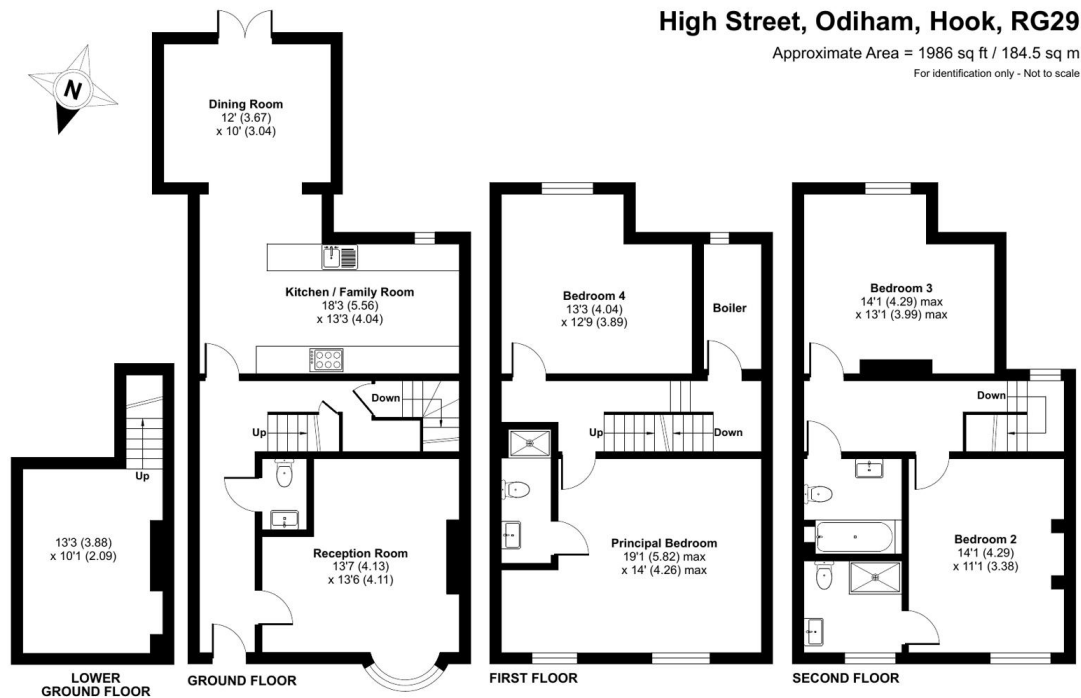

Accommodation comprises a reception room with a bay window, 18' kitchen/breakfast room opening to the dining room providing access to the rear garden, plus a cloakroom and the basement. To the first and second floors there are four spacious double bedrooms with three bath/shower rooms, two of which are en suites.

Outside

This home offers a low maintenance rear garden suitable for al fresco entertaining.

There are two allocated parking spaces and an EV charging point.
